COFFEE BREAK . . . Supporting players Glenn Hoefner (Frump) and Barbara Vrooman (Smitty) sing the woes of an empty coffee pot during a scene from "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," now playing at Chapel Theatre. The delightful musical spoof of practices in the world of big business concludes its run with performances Friday and Saturday, Oct. 7 and 8.

'How to Succeed In Business' Continues

Chapel Theatre's current production of "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" will conclude its five-weekend run Oct. 7 and 8.

A musical spoof of big business, the Frank Loesser-Abe Burrows comedy has been playing to near capacity audiences at Chapel Theatre. Don Mallon, a Redondo Beach resident, is cast in the role of the Finch, a window washer who, with the aid of a small book, climbs to the top of the executive ladder at World Wide Wicket Co. Dick Jordahl of Torrance is Mr. Biggley, the stuff-shirt president of WWW.

Anne Childress of Torrance portrays Rosemary, who has her eyes set for Finch. Others in the cast include Celest Clinton of Seal Beach as Hedy, Barbara Vrooman of Torrance as Smitty, and Glenn Hoefner of Hermosa as Frump, nephew to the boss.

Fred West directs the production and sets, made of cardboard to facilitate the 22 changes required throughout the play, were designed by Phyllis Palmer of Redondo Beach.

Reservations should be made early, a spokesman for

Moosehart Story Told At Dinner

Torrance Lodge 785 of the Loyal Order of Moose held its annual "Booster Dinner" last week with more than 200 persons attending the event. The dinners are held several times each year to introduce prospective members of the Lodge to members.

James McCune, past governor of the lodge, discussed Moosehart, the fraternal organization's "Children's City," and showed a film on the life and activities of children at Moosehart.

Past Governor Danny Hutchinson and Clarence Adelman were in charge of the event.

Burros have a very broad diet. They have been known to masticate broken glass, newspapers, rags and tobacco.
